* Russia as host for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games has guaranteed qualification.
 Great Britain's qualification points gained by Scotland at World Championships.

The Olympic Curling Competition in Sochi in 2014 will be comprised of 10 teams for Men and Women.

- The top 7 Associations (excluding Russia) who have collected the most qualifying points from the World Women's Curling Championships (WWCCs) held in 2012 and 2013 will qualify.
- Any eligible Association that earned qualification points at the 2012 or 2013 WWCCs, or participated at the 2011 WWCCs, who do not qualify for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games as the host, or as one of the top 7 Associations, may enter the new Olympic Qualification Event (OQE) which will be run by the WCF in December 2013.
- The top two teams from the OQE also qualify their Association (National Olympic Committee) for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games.

Points are awarded at the WWCCs according to final ranking of the 12 participating teams as follows: 14 – 12 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1
